

Dear FCCG Partners and Community Educators:

The Florida Council on Compulsive Gambling would like to again thank you for serving as ambassadors for the agency. Your community based efforts have and will continue to reach many more thousands of individuals across the state to bring awareness to the issue of problem gambling.

The FCCG is committed to maintaining good communication with our partners and hope our networking efforts are beneficial to your professional goals. One of the ways we hope to achieve that is through our “Interactive Forum.” The forum allows you to share ideas with colleagues as well as receive information about upcoming events. There is a specific category for Community Educators/Partners to network topics of interest or to simply get information on upcoming FCCG Community Educator events in your area. We encourage you to Register with the Forum and Post a comment, share an article or read what others have to say. If you have any questions regarding the Forum or any other matter, feel free to call us at the Council. We look forward to hearing from you.
